Level 3 Award in the Requirements of Fire Detection and Fire Alarm Systems in Dwellings

This qualification focusses on fire detection and alarm systems within Grades D – F, but will also cover Grades A and C. It will introduce the various key legislation and regulations that apply to the design, installation and commissioning, certification and maintenance of fire detection and fire alarm systems in dwellings, as detailed in BS 5839-6.

Course duration 2 days

Who should attend?

There are no formal entry requirements for this qualification, however those attending should be familiar with electrical systems. This qualification is aimed at electricians and other building service engineering professionals who wish to gain an understanding of fire detection and alarm systems in dwellings.

Learning outcomes

This qualification gives delegates an understanding of the requirements for fire detection and fire alarm systems in dwellings.

Course outline

- The key legislation and regulations applicable to fire detection and alarm systems in dwellings
- Differing regulations and standards within the UK nations
- Fire risk assessments
- The requirements for the design, installation and commissioning, certification and maintenance of fire detection and fire alarm systems in dwellings

This qualification is assessed by a multiple-choice exam

What do I need to have with me?

- A device (such as phone or tablet) designed to run mobile applications

Optional

- A copy of BS 5839-6:2019+A1:2020
- A scale rule
- Highlighters

Assessment body

eal®
Part of the Enginuity Group

Why train with us?

- We've been training the profession for over 20 years
- Delivered by real-world experts
- Flexible courses, tailored to suit you
- 60 + courses to choose from
- Online, in person, at your premises or at ours

Are you interested in taking this or any of our other courses?

Contact our friendly training team to discuss your needs further

📞 0333 0156626   ✉ traininginfo@certsure.com